

CONVENTION HIGHLIGHTS: Court Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blainey, Fred Foy, Ernest Kinoy, Mr. and Mrs. Mandel Kramer, Raymond Edward Johnson, James Maloney, Grace Matthews, James Monks, Rosa Rio and Bill Youmans, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Somerville, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stanley, Vicki Vola, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Walliser....All of these special guests were present throughout the day and evening. They participated in a panel discussion, socialized during the cocktail hour, presented two radio programs, and received awards.

The convention started at 9:00 with 17 dealer and display tables including some manned by Joe Webb (Airwaves) and Allen Rockford and Don Richardson (Nostalgia Radio News). Movies were shown from 9:00 to 3:00. They included a short AMOS AND ANDY film, 3 LONE RANGER serials, THE BIG BROADCAST OF 1932, and HERE WE GO AGAIN with Hal Peary, Marian and Jim Jordan, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Gale Gordon (supplied by Tony Esposito) and the MARCH OF TIME 1947 newsreel on radio broadcasting, a broadcast of THOSE WE LOVE and a 10-minute excerpt of a JACK BENNY SHOW (supplied by Jerry Haber).

At 3:00 there was a quiz show identifying radio programs by dialog and opening theme. Out of 71 possible answers Bob Vito got first prize with 65 right. Allen Rockford and Dave Siegel shared second prize and Ken Piletic received 3rd prize...At 3:45 Raymond Edward Johnson commanded the audience of 200 with a 40 minute reading. At 4:45 all the guests participated in an informal panel discussion answering these questions: 1. How did you start in radio? 2. What was most eventful in your career? 3. What is the future of radio.

A cocktail hour with hors d'oeuvres followed until 7:15. Then 160 guests had dinner (last year we had 95). The two radio programs presented were an episode of OUR GAL SUNDAY and THE SHADOW "The House that Death Built." Rosa Rio played the piano, Ed Blainey provided the sound effects, Warren Somerville directed. In The Shadow Grace Matthews played Margot Lane, Mandel Kramer played Lamont Cranston. Fred Foy announced both programs...Bob Witte performed as M.C. for the panel and evening festivities. 15 awards were given out. Al Hodge, Peg Lynch, and George Ansbro, even though they were not able to be there, received awards.

You may receive a tape of everything, afternoon and evening, by sending 2 1800' reels to either Joe Webb or myself. Joe's address is 5 Valley View Dr, Yonkers, NY 10710.

The guests were very gracious in granting interviews. I want to thank them again for giving of their time to be with us.

Also the committee did a wonderful job. Many thanks to Ed Corcoran, Julie and Larry Desalvatore, Ken Piletic, Joe Webb, Stu Weiss, and Carol and Bob Witte.
